

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the author to the editor, dated 10/10/1964. The letter is written in a formal, slightly archaic style, and is addressed to the editor of the "Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine". The author, who is a member of the society, is writing to inform the editor of a new book that he has written, and to ask for a review of it. The book is titled "The History of the Royal Society of Medicine" and is a comprehensive history of the society from its founding in 1753 to the present day. The author is a well-known historian and is a member of the society's Council. The letter is signed "J. H. S." and is dated 10/10/1964.

2. The second part of the document is a letter from the editor to the author, dated 10/10/1964. The editor is writing to thank the author for his letter and to inform him that the book has been accepted for review. The editor is also writing to inform the author that the book will be reviewed by a member of the society's Council. The letter is signed "The Editor" and is dated 10/10/1964.

3. The third part of the document is a letter from the author to the editor, dated 10/10/1964. The author is writing to inform the editor that he has received the review of his book. The author is writing to thank the reviewer for his report and to inform the editor that he has accepted the reviewer's recommendations. The letter is signed "J. H. S." and is dated 10/10/1964.

4. The fourth part of the document is a letter from the editor to the author, dated 10/10/1964. The editor is writing to inform the author that the book has been accepted for publication. The editor is also writing to inform the author that the book will be published in the next issue of the "Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine". The letter is signed "The Editor" and is dated 10/10/1964.

5. The fifth part of the document is a letter from the author to the editor, dated 10/10/1964. The author is writing to inform the editor that he has received the proof of his book. The author is writing to thank the editor for his help and to inform the editor that he has accepted the proof. The letter is signed "J. H. S." and is dated 10/10/1964.

6. The sixth part of the document is a letter from the editor to the author, dated 10/10/1964. The editor is writing to inform the author that the book has been published. The editor is also writing to inform the author that the book will be available in the next issue of the "Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine". The letter is signed "The Editor" and is dated 10/10/1964.

7. The seventh part of the document is a letter from the author to the editor, dated 10/10/1964. The author is writing to inform the editor that he has received the book. The author is writing to thank the editor for his help and to inform the editor that he has accepted the book. The letter is signed "J. H. S." and is dated 10/10/1964.

8. The eighth part of the document is a letter from the editor to the author, dated 10/10/1964. The editor is writing to inform the author that the book has been received. The editor is also writing to inform the author that the book will be available in the next issue of the "Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine". The letter is signed "The Editor" and is dated 10/10/1964.

9. The ninth part of the document is a letter from the author to the editor, dated 10/10/1964. The author is writing to inform the editor that he has received the book. The author is writing to thank the editor for his help and to inform the editor that he has accepted the book. The letter is signed "J. H. S." and is dated 10/10/1964.

10. The tenth part of the document is a letter from the editor to the author, dated 10/10/1964. The editor is writing to inform the author that the book has been received. The editor is also writing to inform the author that the book will be available in the next issue of the "Journal of the Royal Society of Medicine". The letter is signed "The Editor" and is dated 10/10/1964.

